

is very great. Satan is the great accuser of the brethren. Some men who really mean to be good and true unwittingly follow him in this thing. Let all harsh criticism be abandoned. God is love. His children are like him. Let us not love in word alone, but in deed and in truth.

Our Dead

BEAL.—Milda E. Beal was born February 28, 1870, and died October 5, 1900, at her home near Ankenytown. She was married to Ezra E. Beal July 4, 1889. To them were born three children who with her husband survive her. Sister Beal united with the Brethren church November 1, 1899, and was a very active member of the Ankenytown church. She was a woman who had many friends and her loss is not only deeply felt in her home but in the church and community. The services were conducted by Rev. Paullin of the Evangelical church assisted by the writer. From Acts 9:37. J. L. KIMMEL.

DICKEY.—Ernest E., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickey, of Trent, S. D., died Sept. 19, aged 4 months and 12 days. Funeral sermon preached by the undersigned. ELI HOOVER.

ROBERTS.—Mrs. Ollie Roberts was born at Mishawaka, Ind., May 9, 1866, and died at New Troy, Mich., October 20, 1900, aged 34 years, 5 months, 11 days, leaving two children, one son James aged 14, and daughter Ethel, aged 11. Also father, mother and five sisters. The mother and two sisters are members of Brethren church. Funeral sermon by ISAAC VOORHEES.

BARNHART.—Brother Levi Barnhart of the Winchester, Ohio, church passed away October 20, 1900, aged 55 years and two days. Brother Barnhart was an active member of the Brethren church, one of the first to propagate the cause at Winchester, Ohio, where he remained a faithful servant of the Master until his death.

The loss sustained by the church in the decease of our brother will be felt severely. The providence has cast a gloom over all, but in it we have hope. Brother Barnhart "walked with God," like Enoch, "and was not for God took him." The wife and children who are left have our heartfelt sympathy and prayers. J. C. MACKEY.

RUPP.—Miss Mary Rupp, aged 17 years, was instantly killed last Saturday evening by the fast mail train as she attempted to cross the Lake Shore tracks near her home at Dunlap. Her body was hurled seventy feet, and almost every bone in her body was broken. This sad accident has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood and the brother and sister have the sympathy of all, they being all that are left of the family. The father died when the children were small and the mother died one year ago. Funeral by Rev. Eby of Elkhart and A. R. Bemenderfer, of Middlebury.
